DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-56 are pending in the instant application.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-13, 55, and 56, drawn to chimeric polypeptides comprising FVII and an immunoglobulin Fc region.

Group II, claim(s) 14-27, drawn to methods of administering chimeric polypeptides to treat disease.

Group III, claim(s) 28-40, drawn to polynucleotides.

Group IV, claim(s) 41-54, drawn to gene therapy.

3. The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The technical feature linking the instant inventions is an immunoconjugate comprising factor VII and an Fc domain wherein the FVII moiety comprises mutations at a particular location. The prior art of Garen (WO 01/02439) discloses and claims immunoconjugates comprising FVII and an Fc domain wherein the FVII domain is mutated such that it does not initiate blood coagulation (see entire document, particularly claim 1 and page 11). This disclosure differs in that the specific mutations recited in instant claim 1 are not taught. However, Wildgoose et al. (Biochemistry, 1990, 29:3413-20) teach a mutant form of FVII which comprises a mutation at position 152 which reduces its coagulation ability to 0.01% of wild type FVII (see entire document, particularly the abstract). As such, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art that the immunoconjugates of Garen could be made with the mutation at position 152 since this mutation reduces blood coagulation ability of FVII as is required by the teachings of Garen. Thus, the technical feature of the instant invention does not appear to require any inventive step over that which has been described in the prior art and therefore the instant inventions have been found to lack unity of invention.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
